Diligence Work on Response to First Request for Information
Portland Harbor Superfund Site, Portland, Oregon
Our Ref. No. 2003/05084/0152/0153

Dear Ms. Yamamoto:

This letter provides the first update on Cargill, Incorporated's ("Cargill") response to the Environmental Protection Agency's ("EPA") First Request for Information relating to the Portland Harbor Superfund Site. Cargill appreciates EPA's consideration in granting the extension of time in which to respond to the First Request for Information. We currently have identified approximately 29 boxes of files potentially containing documents or information responsive to the Request for Information. As of today, we have reviewed 19 of the boxes and have tagged potentially responsive documents from the files in those boxes. We have 10 boxes of files yet to review.

Cargill will provide another update to EPA within 30 days. Should you have any questions in the interim, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Karen Farago
Sr. Environmental Paralegal
